Visiting Salariin Kampuchea Projects in Cambodia

We do not consider the children as a tourist attraction and we think that our priority is to protect and maximize the security and well-being of the children attending any of our projects.

We have a child protection policy that any visitors are recommended to check and sign (visible on our web site).

Visiting Salariin Kampuchea projects must meet the following conditions:

- Visitors wishing to visit SK projects must contact a responsible person (Manager or Director). If approved the person responsible will inform the staff about your visit.
- Motivation of visit must be clarified with a responsible person.
- Taking pictures is not permitted except under certain conditions.
- Visitors are allowed to visit SK projects only after approval by a responsible person. If not the staff will not let visitors getting inside our projects.
- The visitors come in priority from organisations that SK is seeking to establish a relationship with.
- The visitors will be accompanied by staff at all time and will follow the Child Protection Policy.
- Giving anything directly to the children is proscribed.
- If visitor want to give something, we invite them to opt for a donation to our account.
- If visitors want to bring material, it must be first discussed with our team who know what we need, as we have a budget to ensure the children needs.
- As staff are responsible to accompany visitors, visits can not exceed 2 hours maximum for SK projects.
- Visitors must respect Cambodian customs and dress appropriately (clothes must cover shoulders and knees).
